

Where devotion meets compassion.

If you have the heart, we have the place for you.

At Rowntree Gardens senior living community, we have high expectations of our employees. We also hire from the heart. In addition to skills and experience, we look for employees who enjoy spending time with seniors, and appreciate the amazing contributions they bring to our community. We actively look for people with a talent for brightening days, and a desire to spread comfort and joy. We seek out compassionate, patient professionals who treat people with respect and dignity through every season of life. Does this sound like you?
